Ake one of these after-written Questions; as for Example, this Question, Whether you shall get her or not, whom you do love; noted with this Character XO, thereby you shall find the number 24, which sheweth thee to the 24 Wheel: hold this Wheel before yousthen cast you, or let him who desireth to know the Question, throw with two Dice a free cast out of his Hand: Mark then how much you threw that cast with both the Dice, as 3, 6, 7, 8, or 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12; Then find out the number you did throw, within the faid Wheel: As for Example, your cast were 6; then you shall find thereby written within the Wheel this word Fountain; but without the Wheel, upon the brim or Margent, directly over against this word Fountain, you shall find this number 64. This sheweth you than further to the lesser Globes or Balls. Look then for the 64 Globe, over which you will find write ten the word Fountain, noting to be the Fountain-Globe: Within the Globe it self is written Nympha, under it is this number 98. This leadeth you then yet further to the hindermost written number 98, under the title of Nympha, where you in the number

- Rouble not thy felf in vain for her Love thou Halt not gain;
  Though the'l kils and toy, yet the Woth not care a factor thee.
- A Las god tooman, ill's your lot. An unkind husband have you got; And let me give the Devil his due; He loves your money better than you.
- STReet Lais, then art to blitte or bold.

  If they wilt hear thy fortune told,
  Be not about, nor livear, nor framp,
  Th'art onely fit to follow the Camp.
- And he does unto the felf this day;

  If your self don't it neglett.
- Tagonble not thy mino at all,

  For its worth no estimation,

  Driv't from thy imagination.
- II f thou know'st thy felf aright,

  Thou art in a happy plight,

  And halt caple to be foll glad:

  Better fortune can't be had.
- 12 You thail unto old age artive, mil 1 and in all temporal induance thribe:
  In honour, riches bravely got,
  Pou'l end your life; they is your lot.
